

About the Walk of Fame

The Music City Walk of Fame is a landmark tribute to those from all genres of music who have made a significant contributions to preserving the musical heritage of Nashville and who have contributed to the world through song or other industry collaboration. With the addition of Loretta Lynn and Jack White, the Walk of Fame boasts 63 stars. Gibson Guitar, the world's premiere musical instrument manufacturer with headquarters in Nashville, is the founding sponsor of the Music City Walk of Fame.

Inductees are announced and honored at a special ceremony with a permanent platinum-and-granite, star-and-guitar sidewalk marker. Inducted honorees include: Boudleaux & Felice Bryant, Fisk Jubilee Singers, Reba McEntire, Ronnie Milsap, Roy Orbison, Kenneth Schermerhorn, The Crickets, Emmylou Harris, John Hiatt, Wynonna Judd, Frances W. Preston, Michael W. Smith, Buddy Killen, Barbara Mandrell, Vince Gill, Bob DiPiero, Rodney Crowell, Kings of Leon, Keith Urban, Steve Winwood, Kix Brooks, Kris Kristofferson, Ernest Tubb, Dolly Parton, Kid Rock and Jimi Hendrix.

You can see the stars in Walk of Fame Park on Demonbreun Street between Third and Fourth Avenues located at the base of the Music Mile in downtown Nashville. The stars lie in the Walk across the street from the Country Music Hall of Fame and Museum, between the Schermerhorn Symphony Center and Bridgestone Arena. The Walk of Fame Park is also home to the beautiful Nashville Music Garden, which is home to nearly 300 roses.

The Music City Walk of Fame is an official project of Music City, Inc., the charitable foundation of the Nashville Convention & Visitors Corp (NCVC). The foundation was established to further the education, research and training for Nashville's hospitality industry and to produce events and projects in association with the City of Nashville. The Music City Walk of Fame is produced with the support of Gibson Guitar, the City of Nashville and Metro Parks. The Walk of Fame is produced with the support of founding sponsor Gibson Guitar and sponsors Durango, Hard Rock Cafe, the City of Nashville and Metro Parks.

Nominations are open to the public and are accepted in the categories of Artist, Musician, Songwriter and Producer/Music Industry Executive. Application forms are reviewed by the Music City Walk of Fame anonymous selection committee.

The Music City Walk of Fame will recognize members of the Walkway of Stars with a commemorative marker. The Walkway of Stars honors country performers of national reputation elected by a majority of the Country Music Hall of Fame and Museum's Board of Trustees.
