

Many Agencies Partner to Implement Portions of the Transportation System in Green Hills

Public Sector

Advocacy & Non-Profit Sector

Planners

 Metro Nashville Planning Department
Develops land use and transportation plans and land use policies implemented through zoning.

 Nashville Area Metropolitan Planning Organization
Develops short and long range regional multi-modal transportation plans.

Implementers Operators

 Nashville MTA
Operates the city buses and paratransit that serve Davidson County.

 Metro Nashville Public Works
Builds and maintains the city streets including traffic signals, bike lanes, and sidewalks.

 Tennessee Department of Transportation
Plans, builds, and maintains state roads and highways. Also the primary agency in which Federal transportation dollars are managed for road, bike/ped, transit improvements, maintenance, and operation.

 Metro Parks
Plans, builds, and maintains parks and open space which includes greenways for recreation and transportation.

 Nashville B-Cycle
Operates the local bike-sharing program through the Downtown Partnership.

Business Community Transit Bike/Ped

 Nashville Area Chamber of Commerce

 WALK/BIKE NASHVILLE

 NASHVILLE BPAC
BICYCLE & PEDESTRIAN ADVISORY COMMITTEE

 transit now nashville

 TGAP The Green Hills Action Partners

 Gr Greenways for NASHVILLE

 TRANSIT ALLIANCE OF MIDDLE TENNESSEE

Private Sector

Developers

Center Turn Lane Along Hillsboro

Turn lane was added between Interstate 440 and Woodmont Boulevard to help with traffic flow.

Tennessee Dept. of Transportation

Coordinated Signal Timing

Metro Public Works completed updates to the signal timing along Hillsboro Pike.

Metro Public Works

Sidewalks

Sidewalks installed in front of Hillsboro Plaza between Richard Jones Road and Abbott Martin Road.

Private Developer

Frequent Transit Service

MTA began operation of #21-University Connector, which connects Green Hills to area universities.

Nashville MTA

Bike Lanes

Bike lanes were added along Crestmoor Road, Cleghorn Avenue, and Hillsboro Circle.

Metro Public Works

Sidewalks

Sidewalks constructed along the south side of Abbott Martin Road.

Metro Public Works

New Sidewalks and Signals Coming Soon

Wide sidewalks will be installed with the development at 4000 Hillsboro along Hillsboro Pike and Richard Jones Road. New traffic and pedestrian signals will be provided.

Private Developer

Additional Turn Lane Capacity Coming Soon

A right turn lane will be installed on Hillsboro Road to Richard Jones Road. Richard Jones Road will have two left turn lanes onto Hillsboro Road. Turn lane capacity will be added at Abbott Martin Road.

Private Developer

Street Connection Coming Soon

Additional residential development is underway at the end of Glen West Drive connecting to Glen Echo Place.

Private Developer