

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT: Sonia Harvat
Metro Water Services
(615) 862-4494

MWS ANNOUNCES PUBLIC MEETING REGARDING CENTRAL WASTEWATER TREATMENT PLANT IMPROVEMENTS

NASHVILLE, Tenn. – Aug. 2, 2005 – Metro Water Services (MWS) will host a public meeting at 6 p.m. on Tues., Aug. 23, to provide an update on the biosolids management and odor control projects at the Central Wastewater Treatment Plant.

Members of the community are encouraged to attend and see a presentation regarding the site layout, architectural features and appearance of the Central complex improvements.

- What: Metro Water Services Public Meeting
- Progress update on the status of the biosolids management and odor control projects at Central
 - Introduction to the project's design and build team
 - Presentation on the site layout, architectural features and appearance of the Central complex improvements
 - Opportunity for comments and questions
- When: Tues., Aug. 23, 6 p.m.
- Where: Neuhoff Complex on Monroe Street in East Germantown

For more information, please call 862-4494 or visit www.nashville.gov/biosolids.

###