Metro Nashville District Energy System To Celebrate Third Anniversary

Mayor Bill Purcell To Speak Commemorative Plaque and Outdoor Kiosk To Be Unveiled

NASHVILLE – The Metro Nashville District Energy System will celebrate its third anniversary on Thursday, Feb. 22 at 9:30 a.m. Mayor Bill Purcell will speak along with Councilman J.B. Loring, Metro Finance Director David Manning and DES General Manager Tim Hestle. The event will be held at the DES facility at 90 Peabody Street, adjacent to the Gateway Bridge.

During the event, a plaque will be unveiled to commemorate the first day of commercial operations at the new District Energy System. On that historic day, significant progress was made in the redevelopment of downtown Nashville when DES replaced the old Nashville Thermal Transfer Corporation.

In addition, an outdoor kiosk will be unveiled that gives the history of Metro DES and explains how it provides heating and cooling services to 40 buildings in downtown Nashville.
