

A weekly selection of issues and activities relevant to local planning in Nashville and Davidson County

Issue #106
June 8, 2010

Saving gas through better traffic flow

Audi and BMW engineers are working on reducing fuel consumption through the use of smart traffic signals.

Where can you get more done?

A bus commuter says he's more productive riding than driving.

The value of intersections

A new study says good neighborhoods have lots of them.

Questions, comments, or link suggestions: craig.owensby@nashville.gov

The Metro Nashville-Davidson County Planning Department publishes this weekly digest to inform members of the Planning Commission, Metro Council, Board of Zoning Appeals, and other interested parties about planning and growth issues in other communities which could apply to our city and region, with particular emphasis on appropriate development, smart growth, multimodal transportation, and other information which will help us build a sustainable future and a more livable city.