

A weekly selection of issues and activities relevant to local planning in Nashville and Davidson County

Issue #128
November 9, 2010

Bridge yes, cars no

You can probably guess where a new bridge has been proposed which would carry walkers, bike riders, and transit - but no private cars.

If we only knew...

how much water we were using, as we were using it, we would probably use less. That's the idea behind this homemade water usage feedback system.

That's a lot of bottles

New York State has collected \$120 million in unclaimed bottle deposits since a "bottle bill" went into effect there last October.

Questions, comments, or link suggestions: craig.owensby@nashville.gov

The Metro Nashville-Davidson County Planning Department publishes this weekly digest to inform members of the Planning Commission, Metro Council, Board of Zoning Appeals, and other interested parties about planning and growth issues in other communities which could apply to our city and region, with particular emphasis on appropriate development, smart growth, multimodal transportation, and other information which will help us build a sustainable future and a more livable city.