

Issue # 228
October 9, 2012

Places where the most commuters walk to work

That list includes college towns, smaller cities, and one massive metroplex.

More front porches, and that's a good sign

New homes are more likely to have front porches - and less likely to have garages - than they were several years ago.

Some powerful cheese

Utah State University's biofuel race car is slower than a Prius, but still set a speed record.

Follow us on Twitter: metronashplan
Development Tracker - online development reports
Planning Commission agenda information line - 615/880-1006
Our Facebook page
Contact us
*For ADA issues: (615)862-7154
or josie.bass@nashville.gov*

The Metro Nashville-Davidson County Planning Department publishes this weekly digest to inform members of the Planning Commission, Metro Council, Board of Zoning Appeals, and other interested parties about planning and growth issues, local and in other communities, which could apply to our city and region, with particular emphasis on appropriate development, smart growth, multimodal transportation, and other information which will help us build a sustainable future and a more livable city.