

Nashville 103 Selected Bibliography

Carole Bucy, Ph.D.

April 2022

“A Child Shall Lead Them” film. URL: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=txyQXhatnX8>

Doyle, Don. Nashville Since the 1920s.

Carey, Bill. Fortunes, Fiddles & Fried Chicken.

Conkin, Paul. Gone with the Ivy.

Egerton, John. Nashville: Two Faces of Two Centuries.

Egerton, John. “Walking into History: The Beginning of School Desegregation in Nashville.”

URL: <https://southernspaces.org/2009/walking-history-beginning-school-desegregation-nashville/>

Erickson, Ansley T. Making the Unequal Metropolis: School Desegregation & Its Limits.

Houston, Benjamin. The Nashville Way: Racial Etiquette and the Struggle for Social Justice in a Southern City.

Ingram, Martha Rivers & D. B. Kellogg. Apollo’s Struggle: A Performing Arts Odyssey in the Athens of the South.

Knight, Meribah, “The Promise,” a two-season podcast produced by WPLN, Nashville Public Radio.

URL: <https://wpln.org/programs/the-promise/>

(Note that on the WPLN website that is linked here, the seasons and episodes are not in numerical order. Scroll down and begin with “Season 1, Episode 1” and listen to the 2 seasons in order. This podcast is especially provocative today and the Nashville and the Tennessee General Assembly are debating how schools should be financed, along with what kinds of schools we should have)

Lovett, Bobby L. The Civil Rights Movement in Tennessee: A Narrative History.

Lovett, Bobby L., Linda T. Wynn & Caroline Eller, editors. Profiles of African Americans in Tennessee, Second Edition.

Spinney, Robert G. World War II in Nashville: Transformation of the Homefront.

Wills, Ridley. Nashville Pikes series.