

METRO ARTS GRANTS BY THE NUMBERS

Of Metro Arts' typical operating budget, more than 70%, or $2.5 million, is pushed back out to the community in the form of grants to arts and culture nonprofits.

IN FY19, THESE GRANTS SUPPORTED

49
NASHVILLE
NONPROFITS

563
PROJECT
LOCATIONS

110,343
STUDENT ARTS
INTERACTIONS

5,336
JOBS (FTE, PART-TIME AND CONTRACT)

CONTRIBUTING TO $429 million
IN ECONOMIC IMPACT COUNTY-WIDE

of nonprofit arts + culture organizations and their audiences, according to Arts + Economic Prosperity 5, a project of Americans for the Arts

WITH A 50% CUT IN METRO ARTS GRANTS SUPPORT, OUR PARTNER ORGANIZATIONS PROJECT:

jobs
lost

At least 188 FTE positions would be affected, not including contract employees

programs
+ services

100% of the 47 respondents said they'd have to cut programs, classes and services

field trips
+ school visits

The 119 programs eliminated would include field trips and school visits

permanent closure

At least 4 organizations would likely close completely

cultural identity

long-term tourism implications