

METRO PARKS THEATER SUMMER CAMP 2019

Play. Create. Inspire

Ages 3-4

$ 40

Dramatic Play

Play, explore, collaborate, and create alongside your preschooler in this fun, interactive, drama experience! Become characters, explore different places, and use teamwork to solve challenging situations drawn from picture books and from their own imaginations.

Saturdays; June 8-29; 10am-11am

Ages 4-5

$ 100

Creative Drama

For our more independent preschoolers and kindergartners, students will work together to explore different worlds, become different characters, and tell different stories each day of camp! Using music, storytelling, visual arts, and movement, students will challenge their imaginations to create stories from beginning to end.

July 29-August 2; 9am-12pm

Ages 5-7

$ 100

Storybook Alive!

In this week long camp, students will work together to bring a picture book to life on stage! Students will have a blast creating characters, playing theatre games, and exploring new worlds all while creating a performance for their family and friends!

July 29-August 2; 1pm-4pm

Ages 8-10

$ 150

From the Ground Up

This week is designed to challenge campers in all four major art disciplines: music, visual arts, theatre, and dance. Using their own ideas and imaginations to work together, campers will discover what it takes to write a song, create choreography, construct a piece of art, and bring a story to life onstage.

June 24-28; 8:30am-4:30pm

Ages 10-15

$ 300

Production: One Act Play

In this two week camp, students will be challenged to fully produce a one-act play! Students who register for the camp will be cast in a role, attend daily rehearsals, and perform in a weekend of shows at the Centennial Blackbox Theatre.

Camp: July 1-5 (no class on July 4) & July 8-12; 9am-4pm
Performances: July 12 & 13 (7pm), July 14 (2pm)

Sketchwriting: Improv $ 150

$ 150

This is a 2-part class. In the first half of the day, students will stretch their improv muscles by learning to tools and rules of improvisation. In the second half of the day, they will apply those improv skills to basic, comedic sketchwriting.

July 15-19; 9am-4pm

Ages 10-14

$ 350

JR. Musical

Does your child love to sing, dance, AND act? Then this camp is for them! Students will be cast in a role, attend nightly rehearsals, and perform a weekend of shows in the Looby Theater. Our JR musical rehearsals will take place every Tuesday and Thursday from June 10-July 11, and then every weeknight from July 15- July 25. Performances will take place in the Looby Theatre July 26-28.

Most rehearsals will run from 5:30pm-7:30pm with the exception of tech week (5:30-9:30). For a full calendar, please email Meredith Daniel.

Mini-Intensives

want your child to experience the magic of camp, but can't commit to a full week? Mini-intensives are the answer!

Stage Combat Ages 11-15

In this class, students will learn how to safely perform a variety of hand-to-hand stage combat moves and gain confidence performing fight choreography for the stage.

July 1 & 2; 9am-4pm

$ 75

Puppetry

Ages 10-14

Students will have the opportunity to design and create their own puppets while also writing and performing in their own short scene. We will learn both building and performance techniques in this new, fun class!

July 3 & 5

$ 75

Ace the Audition! Ages 6-18

In this mini-intensive, students will learn how to select age appropriate audition material, how to perform a cold reading, and other necessary audition techniques while also getting one-on-one monologue coaching with the teaching artist! Students will leave the class with an audition monologue and headshot.

Ages 6-12: July 22 & 23; 9am-4pm
Ages 13-18: July 24 & 25; 9am-4pm
