

Luke Lea, US senator and Nashville businessman, donated the original 800+ acres that was later named for his father-in-law, Percy Warner.