

What is the number 1 thing that you love about the study area?

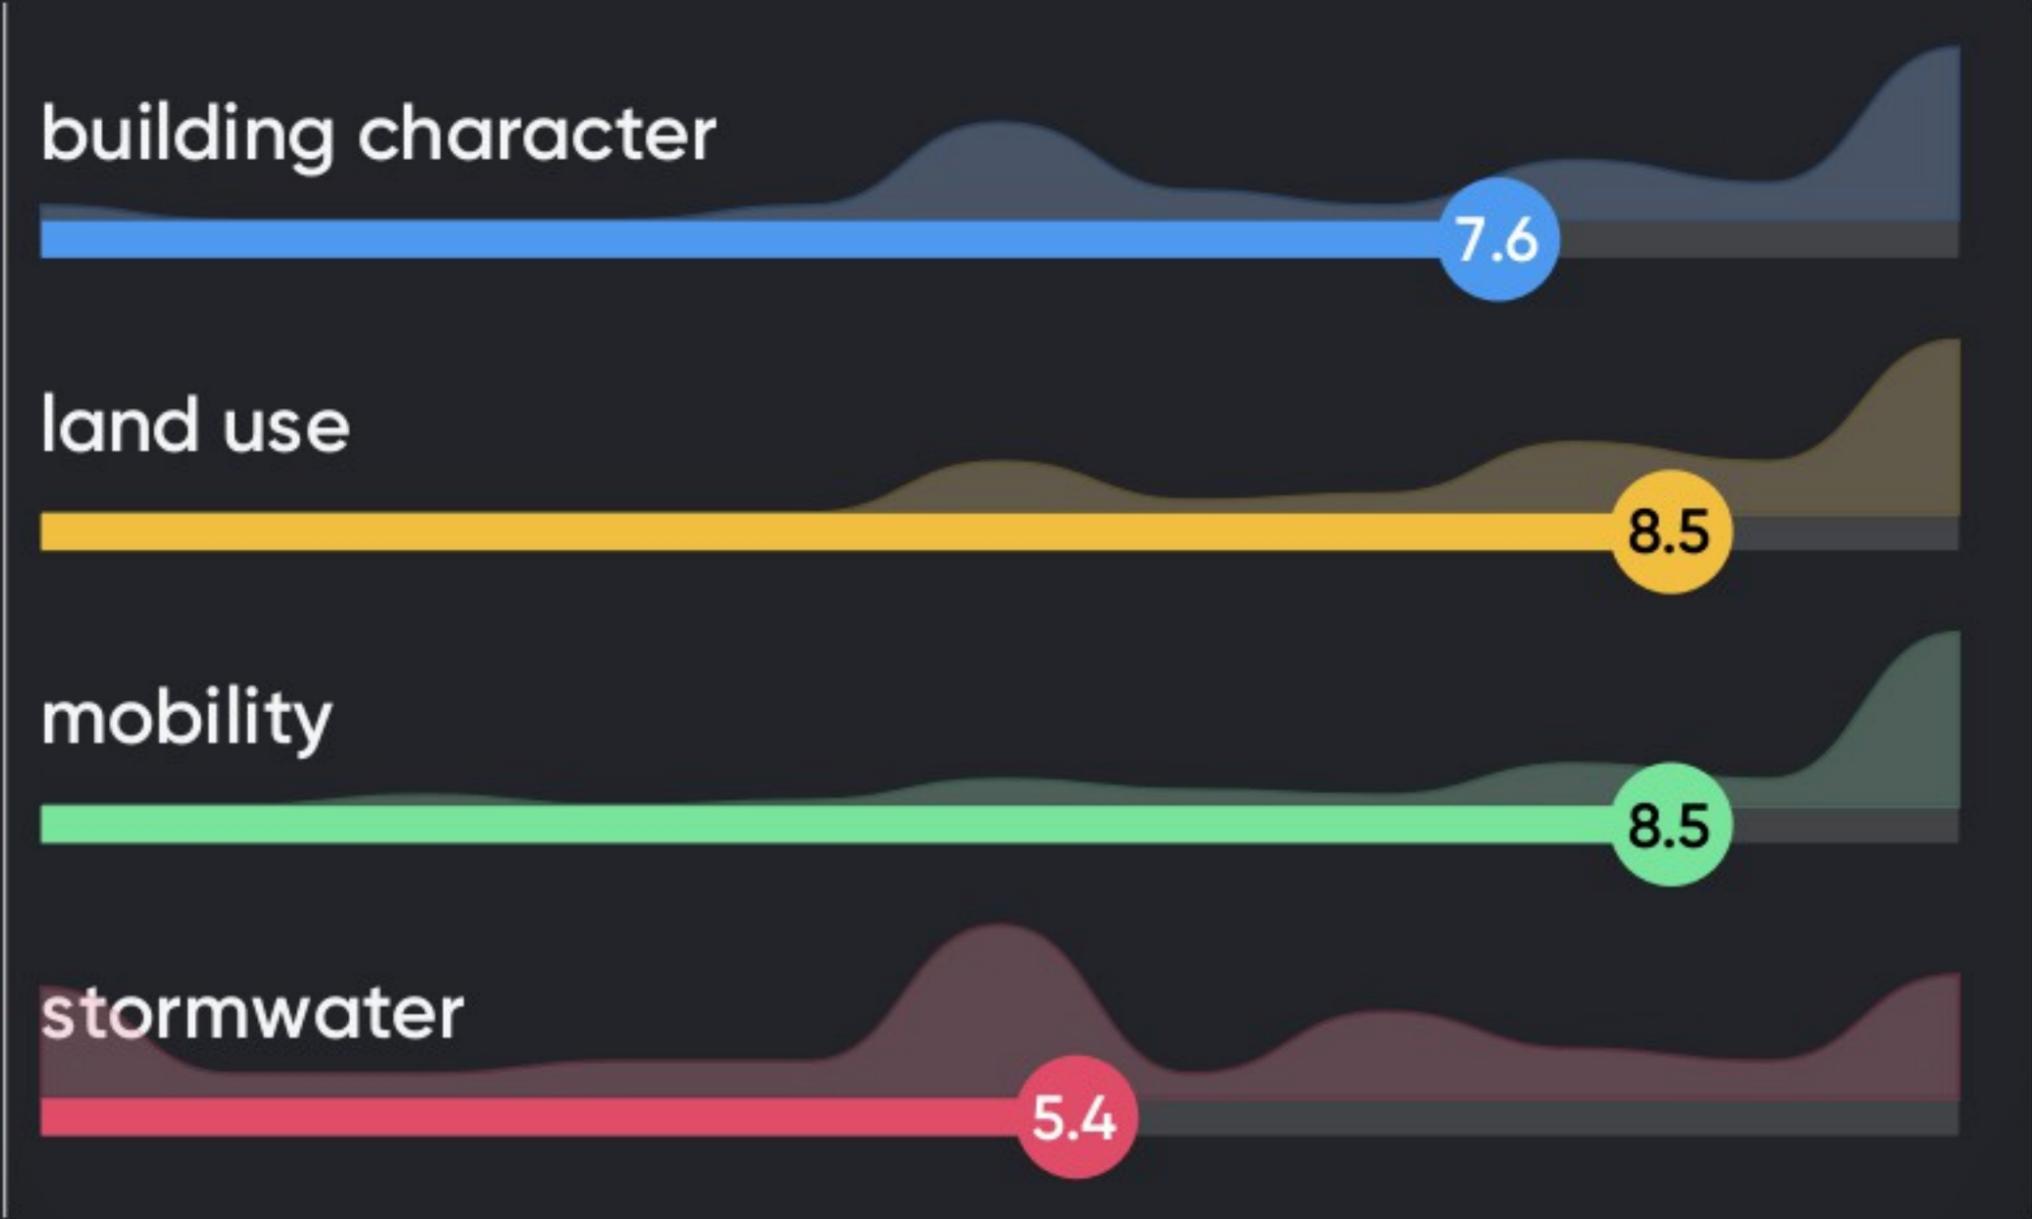

What is the number 1 thing that bothers you about the study area?

How do you get around the study area?

How would you rate each of these concerns? 10 being most important

Use one word to describe what you hope the study area will be in the future

