Hello, and thank you for your interest in our department. As the Bureau Chief over the hiring and recruitment of police officers, it is important to be able to address questions from our community about the MNPD and about our commitment to our community.

It is not our spoken or written words that the public finds trust in. It is our actions that truly promote the public trust. Below you will find a representation of our actions as a department to ensure we are following the best practices and seeking the best outcomes for our department, the Nashville Government and our community. If you believe this information is helpful and provides valuable information about your police department, please feel free to share the information.

1. The MNPD is nationally accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement (CALEA) at the Gold Standard. (The highest standard)
2. The MNPD Training Academy is also separately accredited by CALEA at the Gold Standard. (The highest standard)
3. The MNPD is separately accredited by the Tennessee Association of Chiefs of Police.
4. The MNPD Training Academy requires ALL MNPD employees to have twice the hours of training required for POST certification or that is provided by the state to most Tennessee Law Enforcement Officers.
