MISSION

It is the Mission of the Metropolitan Nashville Police Department to provide community based police products to the public so they can experience a safe and peaceful Nashville.

VALUES

In carrying out our mission, members of the MNPD will continue to value:

- Organizational Excellence and Professionalism
- The Impartial Enforcement of the Law
- The People We Serve and Each Other
- Problem Solving Partnerships
- Open Communications
- Ethics and Integrity
To the Citizens of Nashville:

On behalf of the 2,000 men and women of the Metropolitan Police Department, who are committed to the safety and quality of life of our great city, it is my privilege to present the Annual Report for 2017. We are truly grateful for the relationships and partnerships, new and old, which we share with citizens and community groups throughout Nashville. It is a privilege to work together to advance public safety from Antioch to Joelton, Bordeaux to Belle Meade, East Nashville to Crieve Hall, Madison to Bellevue.

All of us in the MNPD, along with citizens of our community, continue to mourn the loss of Officer Eric Mumaw, an 18-year veteran, who lost his life in the early morning hours of February 2 while attempting to save the life of a distraught suicidal woman on a Cumberland River boat ramp. Officer Mumaw loved this city and very much enjoyed working the overnight shift at the Madison Precinct. Our department and Nashville have suffered the great loss of a true public servant. Officer Mumaw is the 18th MNPD officer to die in the line of duty since Nashville’s Metropolitan Government came into existence in 1963.

Overall major crime (Uniform Crime Report offenses) increased by 3.5% from 2016 to 2017. While the crime of burglary decreased by 8.1% and was at its lowest level in 52 years, auto theft in 2017 increased by 49.1%. Violent offenses (homicide, aggravated assault, robbery and rape) increased by a combined total of 2.9%. Property crimes (burglary, larceny and auto theft) increased by 3.7%. The overall crime rate per 100,000 persons demonstrated a 1.7% increase.

The rate of increase in auto theft is absolutely unacceptable, particularly when we, as citizens, can take action to dramatically reverse the trend. Every week, the majority of vehicles stolen in Nashville were taken with keys. Complacency with keys and unlocked vehicles needs to turn to diligence in doing all we can to safeguard our transportation resources. When parking at a convenience market, shopping mall, or your home, please secure your valuables, lock your doors and take your keys.

We are sincerely grateful to Mayor Barry and the Metropolitan Council for their leadership and partnership. Thank you, too, to Nashville’s families for working with us to keep public safety and quality of life at the forefront of Nashville’s priorities.

Sincerely,

Steve Anderson

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

In Nashville and Davidson County, the total number of reported Uniform Crime Report (UCR) Part I offenses increased 3.5% from calendar year 2016 to 2017. Six of the seven Part I crime categories of UCR offenses demonstrated increases. Burglary was the only UCR Part I offenses that demonstrated a decrease during 2017. However, burglaries decreased by 8.1% and were at their lowest level since 1965 (52 years).

Motor vehicle theft demonstrated the largest percent of increase at 49.1%. Criminal homicide increased 33.7%, aggravated assault increased 2.8%, robbery had a 2.6% increase, larceny increased 2.4%, and rape increased slightly at 0.3%. Violent offenses (homicide, rape, robbery, and aggravated assault) increased slightly at 2.9% and property offenses (burglary, larceny, and motor vehicle theft) increased 3.7%.

The overall crime rate per 100,000 demonstrated a 1.7% increase which is lower than the percent of increase in crime counts/numbers cited above. The ‘Crime Rate’ is determined comparing the annual reported number of homicides, forcible rapes, robberies, aggravated assaults, burglaries and larcenies against population estimates for Davidson County per 100,000. In addition, the motor vehicle theft crime rate is determined using the number of registered motor vehicles in Davidson County. Violent crime rate increased slightly by 1.6% and property crime rate also increased 1.6% from 2016 to 2017. This was the lowest burglary crime rate since the formation of the Metropolitan Nashville Government in 1963, in the past 54 years. In addition, the forcible rape crime rate is the lowest since 1976 – a 41 year low.

Overall, physical arrests demonstrated a 3.8% decrease from 2016 to 2017. Adult arrests decreased 4.0% while juvenile arrests decreased by 2.3%.

In 2017, 75 persons died in 74 fatal crashes. That results in a 11.9% increase in persons killed in crashes and a 13.8% increase in the number of fatal crashes. 1966 was the year with the highest number of persons killed in motor vehicle crashes with a total of 129. 2014 was the year with the lowest number of persons killed in motor vehicle crashes with a total of 64.

The average number sworn per 1,000 population decreased 1.6% during the period from 2016 to 2017. However during the same time frame, the number of UCR Part I offenses per sworn personnel increased 4.6%. The number of calls received at the Metropolitan Emergency Communications Center (all call types) with a police officer response increased 1.4%.
EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Part I Criminal Offenses Reported to Police. Overall, the number of total Part I UCR offenses increased 3.5% from 2016-2017. Offenses are reported in accordance with UCR guidelines and definitions. Violent crimes include homicide, forcible rape, robbery and aggravated assault. Property crimes include burglary, larceny, and motor vehicle theft.

The FBI definition of rape changed and was announced in 2012 and became effective nationwide on 1/1/2013. However, MNPD began implementation of the new rape definition in 2012. Prior to 2012 rape was defined under the category of forcible rape. The new expanded definition implemented in 2012 now includes forcible rape, forcible sodomy, and sexual assault with an object. The new definition also includes male victims.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Crime Rate per 100,000. The Overall crime rate of 5,074.8 per 100,000 increased by 1.7%, Violent crime increased slightly by 1.6% and Property crimes increased 1.6% from 2016 to 2017. Although the crime rate was up slightly, the rate was well below the average annual crime rate of 6975.0 per 100,000 for the period from 1963 to 2017.

Sources: UCR Part I Offenses are derived from Metropolitan Police Department’s Incident Based Reporting System. 2017 counts are sourced from MNPD ARMS on 4/12/2018.

Population figures are from the Metropolitan Planning Commission. Vehicle registration information from the TN Dept. of Safety, Title & Registration Division. A change in how motor vehicle registrations are classified has changed the Motor Vehicle Theft rate starting in 2014.

*The Motor Vehicle Theft crime rate was recalculated for the period from 2014 - 2016 because of a change to how motor vehicle registrations are classified in Davidson County.

Madison Precinct Officer Eric Mumaw, an 18-year veteran, lost his life in service to his community on the morning of February 2nd.

"Officer Mumaw loved this city and very much enjoyed working the overnight shift at the Madison Precinct," Chief Steve Anderson said. "Our department and Nashville have suffered the great loss of a true public servant."

Investigative interviews conducted in regard to Officer Mumaw’s death gave detectives a scenario of what took place, before sunrise, on the boat ramp at the edge of the Cumberland River in Peeler Park.

At 4:16 a.m., the Emergency Communications Center received a call from a family member of a woman in a car on the boat ramp who had a history of being suicidal. Officers Mumaw, Nick Diamond and Trent Craig responded. When they arrived, they saw her car at the bottom of the boat ramp at the edge of the Cumberland River. The officers tried to convince her to get out of the car for several minutes. Officer Diamond was on the passenger side while Officers Mumaw and Craig spoke with her through the driver’s side window. As Officer Craig reached in to prevent her from putting the car into gear, Officer Mumaw tried to open her door. It is believed that she then put the car into gear and it headed into the river. Officers Mumaw and Diamond went with the car and lost their balance when they stepped off of the submerged end of the boat ramp. The two were pulled further into the river by the car. Diamond regained some control and reached for Officer Mumaw who was drifting further into the river. Officer Diamond lost a slight grip that he had on Officer Mumaw. Officer Craig ran along the riverbank for a short distance, saw the top of Officer Mumaw’s head, and jumped into the water, which came up to his neck. The water temperature and conditions were too much to overcome, and Officer Craig was forced to get out of the water.

Fire Department personnel quickly responded in boats, along with the Office of Emergency Management. The woman was found on the riverbank around a bend from the boat ramp after she apparently swam from the car. Officer Mumaw’s body was discovered by a Fire Department diver just after 8 a.m. less than 100 yards from the boat ramp.

Officer Diamond was taken to Vanderbilt University Medical Center where he was treated and released. Officer Craig was treated at the scene and did not go to a hospital.
The woman was transported to Skyline Medical Center. She showed clear signs of intoxication and was further evaluated at a hospital where results showed that she was behind the wheel of the car legally drunk. Upon discharge from the hospital, she was arrested and charged with aggravated vehicular homicide. She was on probation relating to an April 2016 DUI conviction at the time of the incident.

A memorial service for Officer Mumaw was held on February 6th at Cornerstone Church on Old Hickory Boulevard in Madison. It was a tribute to, and a celebration of life for, an excellent police officer and a good man who cared greatly for this community. Chief Anderson, Mayor Barry, MNPD Honor Guard members, and other close friends of Officer Mumaw traveled to Columbus, Ohio for his funeral service held on February 10th.

Officer Mumaw was the 18th MNPD officer to die in the line of duty since Nashville’s Metropolitan Government came into existence in 1963. Prior to February 2nd, Officer Michael Petrina was the last officer to be killed in service to the city. He was struck by a motorhome while assisting in the investigation of an I-65 vehicle crash on May 10, 2014.
MEMBERING A HERO

Members of the Madison Chamber of Commerce presented a special gift for the family of Officer Mumaw. Through citizen donations for special yard signs created by Jarvis Sign Company that show support for first responders, the Chamber of Commerce raised $5,470. A special thanks to the Madison Chamber, as well as to Jarvis Signs and Nathan Massey who spearheaded this project.

On September 11th, the State of Tennessee posthumously awarded Officer Eric Mumaw the Three Stars of Tennessee Award for his selfless service to the citizens of Nashville. Lt. Jeff Sanders accepted the award on the behalf of the MNPD (pictured right below) with (l-r) Mayor Megan Barry and Sergeant Robert Weaver, who also attended the ceremony honoring Officer Mumaw.
On June 7th, Chief Steve Anderson announced a significant restructuring of the MNPD, effective July 1st, designed to increase the department’s effectiveness in the months and years ahead as Nashville continues to grow.

Two new bureaus, Support Services and Executive Services, were added to the existing three, and two new deputy chiefs, John Drake and Mike Hagar, were appointed.

Deputy Chief Drake, 52, pictured left, was Commander of the Central Precinct, a 29-year MNPD veteran who holds a Bachelor’s Degree from Bethel University. As a Captain, Drake headed the police department’s Domestic Violence Division and worked as a Field Supervisor. As a Lieutenant, he headed Hermitage Precinct Investigations.

Deputy Chief Drake will oversee the Support Services Bureau, to be made up of components that are presently spread among the three existing bureaus. Among the components that will report to Deputy Chief Drake are the Special Operations Division (Aviation, Canine, Traffic, Emergency Contingency, SWAT & Negotiators, School Crossing Guards), Warrants Division, Parks Police Division, Custom Services Division (Special Events, Secondary Employment, MDHA Task Force, School Resources Coordinator, Field Training Officer Coordinator), Mounted Unit, and the Facilities Management Division (Property & Evidence, Fleet Management, Safety & Inspections, and Supply).

Deputy Chief Hagar, 49, pictured right, was Captain over the Strategic Development Division, a 27-year MNPD veteran who holds a Bachelor’s Degree from MTSU and a Law Degree from Nashville School of Law. As a Captain, Hagar was also a Field Supervisor, Director of Training, and head of Forensic Services.

Deputy Chief Hagar will oversee the Executive Services Bureau, to be made up of the Strategic Development, Accreditation, Grants and Crime Analysis components.

“The two new bureaus will streamline the span of control of our deputy chiefs and will allow each of them to more narrowly focus on their individual components as we work to enhance safety throughout Nashville’s neighborhoods,” Chief Anderson said. “Deputy Chief Drake and Deputy Chief Hagar have extensive experience throughout the department and will complement the leadership of present Deputy Chiefs Brian Johnson, Todd Henry and Damian Huggins.”
On July 29th, the Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies (CALEA) granted the department Advanced Reaccreditation with Excellence for a period of three years, noting that the Metro Nashville Police Department is in compliance with 100% of model law enforcement standards and policies.

Chief Anderson appeared before a panel of commissioners at CALEA’s summer meeting in Providence, Rhode Island. CALEA Commissioner and Rhode Island State Senator Cynthia Armour Coyne noted that the department had a “glowing report” from its March 2017 inspection, and added “You should be commended for your community outreach.”

The department has been continuously accredited since 1994, nearly a quarter century. Chief Anderson said maintaining that status is a top priority.

“Subscribing to an evolving set of 459 internationally accepted standards is part of this police department’s absolute commitment to professionalism and partnership as we work with citizens across our eight precincts to promote public safety and enhance quality of life,” Chief Anderson said. “Maintaining more than two decades of accredited status is good for our police department and good for Nashville.”

On October 26th, Chief Anderson and the local chapter of the Theodore Roosevelt Association presented Officer Terrance McBride, who was seriously wounded by a shotgun blast fired by a New York ex-convict, with the Theodore Roosevelt Police Award for Nashville & Middle Tennessee.

Officer McBride, a four-year MNPD veteran, was honored during a ceremony held in the community room of the Hermitage Precinct. The Theodore Roosevelt Association Police Award is given to an officer who has rendered outstanding and praiseworthy service to the department and the community despite a serious handicap, illness or injury. Just before sunrise on December 13, 2016, Officers McBride and Ky Luu responded to the Cumberland Inn on W. Trinity Lane after a citizen reported that a man in room 104 was potentially wanted on outstanding warrants and had spoken of committing a robbery. When the officers knocked on the door, it was answered by a woman who admitted to being a heroin user. Drug paraphernalia was plainly visible through the open door. When the officers twice asked whether anyone else was present, the woman responded no, although her mannerisms appeared strange. Officer McBride walked toward the bathroom, spotted parolee Paul Hardesty, and yelled for him to show his hands. A shotgun blast then rang out from inside the bathroom. Officer McBride was hit in the shoulder. Both officers returned fire.

Officer Luu worked to provide cover so that they could both exit the motel room. Officer McBride was rushed to Vanderbilt University Medical Center. Over the ensuing months, he endured four surgeries to repair damage from the shotgun wound, all the while looking forward to his return to serving Nashville’s families as a member of the police department. He returned to light duty in March 2017, and to full duty in April 2017. In August, McBride transferred to the Domestic Violence Division where he is now a detective working to help women and children impacted by violence in the home.

“Terrence McBride is a special kind of police officer,” Chief Steve Anderson said. “He calmly and purposefully handled the situation he was presented with in December 2016. Then, he did not allow the trauma of being shot to stand in the way of his commitment to serving this community. It is only fitting that he was selected to be a detective in the Domestic Violence Division where he can use his skill and training to help reduce the impact of family violence on victims who come to us for help.’

The Theodore Roosevelt Association established the police awards program in honor of Roosevelt’s distinguished service as President of the Board of Police Commissioners of New York City from 1895 to 1897, and in recognition of his lifelong admiration for the police. Other cities that present the award include New York City, Metropolitan Washington, D.C., San Diego, Dallas, and Suffolk & Nassau Counties in New York.

Through the generosity of the continuing award sponsor, Rock Solid Roofing Company, a Division of McEwen Home Improvements (RockSolidRoofingTN.com), and the Theodore Roosevelt Association, Detective McBride will receive a $1,000 cash award, a medal, and a bust of Theodore Roosevelt. A bronze plaque, which bears a likeness of Roosevelt for display at the MNPD, will now include the inscription of McBride’s name.

The Shoney’s 5K Family Fun Run, Walk & Festival on May 13th raised $15,000 to benefit the Nashville Police Support Fund.

The Nashville Police Support Fund, a component of the Community Foundation of Middle Tennessee, was established primarily to help defray costs for officers working to complete higher education degrees. Through the generosity of Shoney’s CEO David Davoudpour, who personally matches entry fees dollar for dollar, more than $177,000 has been raised for the fund since the Shoney’s 5K began in 2009. Fifty-seven higher education grants have been awarded from the fund over the past four years.

SPECIAL OLYMPICS

Officers and Trainees on May 20th participated in the Special Olympics Tennessee Summer Games at Lipscomb University.
Chief Anderson on April 10th ceremoniously purchased the West End Synagogue’s leavened products from Rabbi Joshua Kullock as part of the annual celebration of Passover. In appreciation, Rabbi Kullock made a donation to the FOP Youth Camp.
The Mounted Horse Patrol was a huge hit at the Sudekum Apartments’ Spring Fling and Wright Middle School Career Day.
