Checklist for violence prevention

Do my family and I

☐ understand the dangers of weapons, especially firearms, and how to prevent them?
☐ talk about the costs—personal and financial—of violence?
☐ think carefully about the kinds of entertainment we watch or hear?
☐ know and practice ways to settle disputes without violence?
☐ understand and practice basic self-protection strategies?

Do my neighbors and I

☐ know each other reasonably well?
☐ work together to make our neighborhood safe for children?
☐ agree on how and when to step in to prevent kids' quarrels from becoming violent?
☐ discuss how we feel about weapons, including firearms, and what rules and standards we agree on?
☐ help each other by joining and taking an active role in Neighborhood Watch?
☐ know that there are good ways for our children to spend their time and energy after school?
☐ identify, discuss, and solve (or get help to solve) troubling conditions in our area?
☐ work with police, school officials, civic groups, and others to address larger issues for the community?

Does my community

☐ have and enforce sound laws and regulations for secure weapons storage and against weapons violence?
☐ provide safe ways for residents to dispose of unwanted weapons?
☐ actively provide resources and know-how to help residents learn how to solve problems without violence?
☐ provide mentoring and other outreach services to troubled youth and families?
☐ enlist young people in addressing violence problems?
☐ coordinate community groups to develop comprehensive anti-violence strategies and plans?
☐ offer an attractive array of both family-oriented and youth-focused events?
☐ have clear standards that reject violence as a presence in the community?
