

A weekly selection of issues and activities relevant to local planning in Nashville and Davidson County

Issue #58
June 30, 2009

Is it really green?

Greenwashing.com offers public posting and review of advertising for products and services which claim to be green.

Safer, narrower streets

New Urbanist planners want walkable, connected streets. Fire marshals want plenty of room for fire trucks and ambulances. Now, some of them are working together on street designs which may actually speed up emergency response times.

Eleven beautiful railroad stations

Which aren't there any more.

Questions, comments, or link suggestions: craig.owensby@nashville.gov

The Metro Nashville-Davidson County Planning Department publishes this weekly digest to inform members of the Planning Commission, Metro Council, Board of Zoning Appeals, and other interested parties about planning and growth issues in other communities which could apply to our city and region, with particular emphasis on appropriate development, smart growth, multimodal transportation, and other information which will help us build a sustainable future and a more livable city.