

A weekly selection of issues and activities relevant to local planning in Nashville and Davidson County

Issue #76
November 3, 2009

“Agriburbia” brings farms closer to consumers

A 618-acre housing development in Colorado includes 260 acres of farmland.

One less lane for cars

The city of Vancouver, British Columbia, tried reserving a lane on a major bridge for bike and pedestrian traffic. It’s been so popular that the city just might leave it that way.

It’s not about the infrastructure

These bike advocates say we don’t need any new roads - just more efficient vehicles.

Questions, comments, or link suggestions: craig.owensby@nashville.gov

The Metro Nashville-Davidson County Planning Department publishes this weekly digest to inform members of the Planning Commission, Metro Council, Board of Zoning Appeals, and other interested parties about planning and growth issues in other communities which could apply to our city and region, with particular emphasis on appropriate development, smart growth, multimodal transportation, and other information which will help us build a sustainable future and a more livable city.