

A weekly selection of issues and activities relevant to local planning in Nashville and Davidson County

Issue #97
March 30, 2010

Cities are attracting more home construction than suburbs

That's according to an EPA study of the USA's fifty largest housing markets, which says there's been a "fundamental shift" in growth patterns.

The world's highest train

Beijing to Tibet, 48 hours for $49 - and its construction and operation have raised some serious environmental issues.

It's a stop sign, it's a yield sign

And it asks us - politely - to take turns at intersections.

Questions, comments, or link suggestions: craig.owensby@nashville.gov

The Metro Nashville-Davidson County Planning Department publishes this weekly digest to inform members of the Planning Commission, Metro Council, Board of Zoning Appeals, and other interested parties about planning and growth issues in other communities which could apply to our city and region, with particular emphasis on appropriate development, smart growth, multimodal transportation, and other information which will help us build a sustainable future and a more livable city.