

A weekly selection of issues and activities relevant to local planning in Nashville and Davidson County

Issue #148
March 29, 2011

Learning about being green

Some ongoing legislation would provide \$100 million to support environmental education - but it's not moving very quickly.

Saying goodbye to freeways

Our older freeways have been wearing out - so why not just remove them instead of making expensive repairs?

Building “zero-waste communities”

Interesting links and ideas from the webpage of a nonprofit recycler in Colorado.

Questions, comments, or link suggestions: craig.owensby@nashville.gov

The Metro Nashville-Davidson County Planning Department publishes this weekly digest to inform members of the Planning Commission, Metro Council, Board of Zoning Appeals, and other interested parties about planning and growth issues in other communities which could apply to our city and region, with particular emphasis on appropriate development, smart growth, multimodal transportation, and other information which will help us build a sustainable future and a more livable city.