

A weekly selection of issues and activities relevant to local planning in Nashville and Davidson County

Issue #151
April 19, 2011

Downsizing the grocery store

Compact, walkable neighborhoods don't usually have room for traditional supermarkets - so some grocers, including a few national chains, are building smaller stores.

Tell me where I'm walking

Nearly two-thirds fewer pedestrians are getting lost, now that London's installing new, more legible street signs; those signs may also be encouraging residents to walk more.

Sitting on grass and mushrooms

Or at least over them - in some green furniture designs which incorporate living materials.

Questions, comments, or link suggestions: craig.owensby@nashville.gov

The Metro Nashville-Davidson County Planning Department publishes this weekly digest to inform members of the Planning Commission, Metro Council, Board of Zoning Appeals, and other interested parties about planning and growth issues in other communities which could apply to our city and region, with particular emphasis on appropriate development, smart growth, multimodal transportation, and other information which will help us build a sustainable future and a more livable city.