

Issue # 168
August 16, 2011

The end of the consumption line

Several places where landfills and their contents provide both a living and a home.

Selling the “nano house”

An Indian company which recently brought a $2500 car to market is developing a tiny, \$700 kit house for poor, rural buyers.

Home, sweet culvert

A Mexican hotel made of recycled concrete tubing - with one important feature missing from the rooms.

Questions, comments, or link suggestions: craig.owensby@nashville.gov

The Metro Nashville-Davidson County Planning Department publishes this weekly digest to inform members of the Planning Commission, Metro Council, Board of Zoning Appeals, and other interested parties about planning and growth issues, local and in other communities, which could apply to our city and region, with particular emphasis on appropriate development, smart growth, multimodal transportation, and other information which will help us build a sustainable future and a more livable city.