

Issue # 225
September 18, 2012

More roads? No, more transit

42 percent of respondents to a new poll say better transit - not new roads - is the solution to traffic problems in their communities.

Sweat is definitely a factor

It seems obvious, but the results of a recently released study from Virginia Tech back it up - workers are more likely to commute by bike if their employers provide bike parking and showers.

Apartments without parking

Even in Portland, that idea's not going over well.

Follow us on Twitter: metronashplan
Development Tracker - online development reports
Planning Commission agenda information line - 615/880-1006
Our Facebook page
Contact us
For ADA issues: (615)862-7154
or josie.bass@nashville.gov

The Metro Nashville-Davidson County Planning Department publishes this weekly digest to inform members of the Planning Commission, Metro Council, Board of Zoning Appeals, and other interested parties about planning and growth issues, local and in other communities, which could apply to our city and region, with particular emphasis on appropriate development, smart growth, multimodal transportation, and other information which will help us build a sustainable future and a more livable city.