

Issue # 230
October 23, 2012

Places where the most people bike to work

This roster of bike-commuting-friendly US communities comes from the same publication which provided our “where the most people walk to work” list two weeks ago. It’s no surprise that our country’s premier college town shows up on both of them.

Cardboard and a “secret concoction”

The manufacturing process for this prototype cardboard bicycle is possibly more interesting than the finished product.

New house, different perspective

Taking a second look at a more affordable, more sustainable, but still traditional-appearing home that’s being built in rural Georgia.

Follow us on Twitter: metronashplan
Development Tracker - online development reports
Planning Commission agenda information line - 615/880-1006
Our Facebook page
Contact us
For ADA issues: (615)862-7154
or josie.bass@nashville.gov

The Metro Nashville-Davidson County Planning Department publishes this weekly digest to inform members of the Planning Commission, Metro Council, Board of Zoning Appeals, and other interested parties about planning and growth issues, local and in other communities, which could apply to our city and region, with particular emphasis on appropriate development, smart growth, multimodal transportation, and other information which will help us build a sustainable future and a more livable city.