

Nashville Tree Foundation's 2008 ReLeafing Day

On November 22, 2008, volunteers planted 30 powerline-approved trees in Inglewood, an urban neighborhood in East Nashville, at the 7th Annual Releafing Day.

Clockwise from Left: Mayor Karl Dean helps plant a redbud sapling. Volunteers and newly planted tree. Dwight Beard, Metro Tree Advisory Committee Member, and Randall Lantz, Metro Parks & Recreation, set the watering bag around the sapling. Joann Armour, Mayor Karl Dean, Eleanor Willis, and Betty Brown, Nashville Tree Foundation.

