Side 1- Racial Terror Lynchings in America

After Southern states overthrew Reconstruction and began undermining the gains newly freed African Americans achieved during the era, white supremacists used racial terror lynchings to intimidate African Americans and enforce segregation.<sup>1</sup> Thousands of Black men, women and children were lynched in the United States between 1865 and 1950.<sup>2</sup> White mobs often committed these lynchings close to the scenes of alleged crimes to intimidate and terrorize the local Black community.<sup>3</sup>

Side 2- Lynching of Samuel Smith

On Dec. 15, 1924, Samuel Smith, age 15, was lynched after being abducted from Nashville General Hospital.<sup>4</sup> Smith and his uncle had car trouble and attempted to take parts from Ike Eastwood's garage.<sup>5</sup> Shots were exchanged; Smith and Eastwood were wounded.<sup>6</sup> Armed, masked, white men took Smith from the hospital and drove him to Eastwood's property.<sup>7</sup> He was stripped, shot and lynched.<sup>8</sup> People watched the lynching from their cars.<sup>9</sup> The city offered an award; no one was ever arrested.<sup>10</sup>
