Mission Statement: The Consumer Advisory Board works to allow an open environment for those experiencing homelessness to express their concerns and solution ideas regarding current assistance, programs, and resources in Nashville. We will work to communicate these concerns with possible solutions to the Homelessness Planning Council. We hope to give a voice to those in need, so they may contribute to the progress that Nashville is making toward helping those without a stable place to live. We will work to create an accessible resource guide for those experiencing instability.
