Our 4 Core Values:

Housing Focused – Person Centered – Data Driven – Effective Use of Resources

Vision:

To end and prevent homelessness for people in Nashville.

Mission/Purpose:

The Metropolitan Homelessness Commission has an unwavering commitment to a single mission: to end homelessness in Nashville. Together with many community partners including people who have experienced homelessness, we lead efforts to create, implement, fund, and advocate for programs and policies that generate measurable results and lead to a clear, 30-day path out of homelessness that provides housing stability for individuals and families.

Values:

- Housing focused
- Person centered
- Data driven
- Effective use of resources

Duties as outlined in Ordinance 2014-777:

The Metropolitan Homelessness Commission shall have the following duties and responsibilities:

- a) To implement a coordinated and focused approach to ending homelessness and to develop measurable objectives;
- b) To assure participation of all stakeholders including homeless persons;
- c) To maintain accurate, current data on homeless populations;
- d) To educate the public, service providers and other interested parties on issues related to homelessness.

Our 4 Core Values:

Housing Focused – Person Centered – Data Driven – Effective Use of Resources
