

88 Hermitage Feasibility Study

COMMUNITY DROP-INS

Thursday, August 17
11:00am-12:30pm

Corner of Hermitage Avenue and Lea Avenue adjacent to the Trolley Barn parking garage

Thursday, August 17
4:30pm-6:00pm

Rolling Mill Hill Greenway overlook where Middleton Street turns south along the Cumberland River

What is this drop-in event about?

For you to review, ask questions, and comment on the results of a feasibility study to explore the potential reuse of the Tennessee School for the Blind campus at 88 Hermitage Avenue.

What will we be doing?

Reviewing informational boards, having conversations with Metro Planning staff, and giving feedback on potential reuse options for the old Tennessee School for the Blind and the surrounding campus.

See feasible ideas for new street and greenway connections, new housing, and new life for the School. Let us know what you think!

SNACKS AND REFRESHMENTS WILL BE PROVIDED COURTESY OF PEOPLE LOVING NASHVILLE

HAVE QUESTIONS?

Scan this QR code or contact Anna Grider, Metro Planning, at anna.grider@nashville.gov or 615-862-7199.
Learn more at www.nashville.gov/88hermitage

METRO
NASHVILLE
PLANNING
DEPARTMENT