

The Fairgrounds Nashville Board of Fair Commissioners

GEODIS Park Update – December 2023

Walker Zimmerman during the home playoff match against Orlando City SC

Events: GEODIS Park hosted the first-ever playoff match on November 7th against Orlando City SC. The Club fell to Orlando City in a closely contested first round of the playoffs. Nashville SC also had two players named to the 2023 MLS Best XI, which recognizes the league's top players at each position as determined by members of the media, MLS players, and MLS club technical staffs. Hany Mukhtar was named as a Midfielder while Walker Zimmerman was named as a Defender.

Off the pitch, GEODIS was home to the annual United Way Thanksgiving Day of Action which involved preparing boxes of food for over 1,400 families in the nine counties served by the United Way of Greater Nashville. GEODIS Park also hosted the Soundwaves Art Gallery on the Suite Level of the stadium throughout the season. This past November, the public was invited to view the gallery and purchase the art produced by local artists.

Club update: Nashville SC is currently in off-season but will resume training once pre-season starts next month.

Submitted by: Nashville SC