GEODIS Park Update – April 2024

Aníbal Godoy's incredible bicycle kick in the NSC vs Columbus match 3/30 that led to a goal.

Events: Since we last met, GEODIS Park hosted Charlotte FC (2-1), the Columbus Crew (2-2) and Philadelphia Union. The English Premier League (EPL) was in town for the April 6th match against the Philadelphia Union (1-2). Several iconic EPL players and commentators attended the match. Nashville SC currently sits at twelfth on the table with one win, four draws and two losses.

The Nashville Soccer Club Unified Special Olympics team roster was announced on March 26th at GEODIS Park. This is the team's third season. They will play two matches on the road and at home on May 18th following the conclusion of the First Team match.

On the non-soccer side, GEODIS Park was also home to the first-ever St. Patrick's Day festival on March 17th. There were several hundred attendees for this event.

Club update: Nashville SC will play the San Jose Earthquakes (4/27) and CF Montréal (5/4) at home prior to our next Fair Board meeting.
