Old Business

- 2026-2028 Community Health Improvement Plan development sessions

Tracy Buck shared a verbal update on the registration for the CHIP Development sessions as noted below. Members were asked by Sarah Goodrich to participate in at least one of the sessions so that they have a better understanding of the CHIP and the work. Tracy Buck will share the calendar invitations to all NHWLC members after the meeting. The session process overview is also attached and was shared as part of the calendar invitation.

- Community Needs Evaluation presentation-Dr. Garrett Harper, MSS Strategic Planning & Research

Dr. Garrett Harper presented the 2024 MSS Community Needs Evaluation. The report was originally published May 14, 2025. The PowerPoint presentation and the full report are both attached for review. Once question of clarification was asked about the 326,000 jobs noted on Slide 14 refer to positions within the 10 counties included in the Nashville MSA.

MSS had the May event recorded and that recording should be available this summer. Jeff Wamble will let us know when that is available for public viewing.
