

September Employee of the Month: Larry Turnley

Which of the following criteria does your nominee most embody?

- | | |
|--|-----------------------------|
| Excellence in Teamwork | Excellence in Motivation |
| Inspiring a Positive Attitude | Enhancing Workplace Culture |
| Exemplifying the Mission and Core Values of MPHD | |

Please provide a specific example that illustrates why you feel this person should be the MPHD Employee of the Month:

- Larry demonstrates unwavering commitment to the mission and values of MPHD by spending every day out on the streets of Nashville, often in the harshest climates and toughest neighborhoods, meeting people where they are and building trust with those who are often the hardest to reach.
- He was recently recognized by the state council for his achievements helping and shaping the community. He brings that same spirit and ambition to help our community to work every day and reminds us this is why we are here.

Please provide any additional information about your nominee that you feel the Workplace Culture Committee should know when reviewing this nomination:

Larry exemplifies remarkable resilience, showing others that it is possible to overcome any circumstance.

Nominated by: 7 of his peers (nominations available upon request)

Dr. Areola, Dr. Melville-Chester, Larry Turnley, and D'Yuanna Allen-Robb