603430	South	10/11/2025	Community Org New	Presentation; Handout	1	275	2	333 Murfreesboro Pike Nashville 37210	On Saturday, Oct. 11, FIP Refugee & Immigrant Specialist was invited by the current President of the Zomi Innkuan Tennessee to attend the annual Zomi Khua Do (harvest festival) event held at Trevecca Nazarene University, with over 275 community members in attendance. This is an occasion of music, dancing, special presentations, and voting for new leadership. Refugee & Immigrant Specialist gave a brief introduction to FIP services, interpreted by the organization's Secretary, expressing that on a day of celebration, while one may not want to think about bad things happening, "every day is a good day to consider one's well-being." She reminded community members that support is available from the Metro Nashville Police Department. Additional literature about FIP services was offered to the community in English, Zomi, and Burmese.

603477	South	12/13/2025	Community Festival	Booth	2	60	2	155 Lafayette St Nashville 37210	On Saturday, December 13th, Victim Advocates attended the Winter Market and Resource Fair hosted by the Tennessee Justice Center. The event provided community members with access to free groceries, clothing, healthcare resources, senior resources, voter registration, and other vital services. During the event, advocates engaged with community members to share information about the services offered by FIP and handed out swag. Advocates also connected with other community agencies, strengthening relationships and learning more about additional programs and resources available to individuals and families in the community. Participation in this event helped increase awareness of FIP services and supported continued collaboration with local organizations serving the community.
