GEODIS Park Update – August 2026

Club Update: Nashville SC returned to MLS play after the World Cup schedule pause with a 1-0 win over Atlanta United on July 17, and began its Leagues Cup 2026 campaign with a 0-1 loss versus LIGA MX's Club León on August 5. NSC is currently 15W-5L-7D across all competitions this season including MLS, Concacaf Champions Cup, and Leagues Cup play.

The Boys in Gold will continue their Leagues Cup Phase One schedule on August 9 versus Atlético de San Luis at GEODIS Park, and MLS regular season play will continue on August 15 at home versus Inter Miami.

NSC remains in 1st place in the MLS Supporter's Shield standings, and will continue Leagues Cup Phase One play on Aug. 12 versus CF Monterrey at GEODIS Park.

Other Events: On July 25, GEODIS Park hosted reigning Premier League Champions Liverpool FC as they defeated Sunderland FC 4–2 in their pre-season friendly match.
