Under the settlement, the previously imposed civil penalty will be rescinded, and the permit holder will pay a $50 penalty. It was noted that the settlement is part of the resolution of broader litigation and that the permit holder has had no subsequent issues before the Board. VI. ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS

(79) N/A

VII. ADMINISTRATIVE MATTERS

(80) Beer Board Rule 2.01 CATERER discussion.

Staff and the Board discussed potential revisions to the Beer Board's catering rules. The discussion was prompted in part by recent catered events at 201 Broadway and concerns regarding alleged violations, including after-hours alcohol service, sales to visibly intoxicated persons, and underage activity. Staff explained that the existing catering rules were originally developed to prevent businesses from using catering permits to operate as permanent beer establishments and that changes in the catering industry may warrant a comprehensive review of the current rules.

The Board discussed existing restrictions on the number of consecutive catering days, delivery and pickup periods, and the prohibition against catering at locations that would otherwise be ineligible for a beer permit. Members also discussed whether the requirement that a Beer Board caterer hold an ABC catering license remains appropriate. Staff advised that the ABC licensing requirement is established by ordinance and would require legislative action to change.

The Board generally favored reviewing the catering rules comprehensively rather than making changes applicable only to the downtown area. Staff proposed obtaining input from Beer Board inspectors, MNP, the Fire Marshal's Office, and other appropriate Metro departments before developing proposed revisions for consideration by the Board.

The Board also discussed enforcement at catered events. Staff noted that Beer Board compliance checks can be conducted at catered events and emphasized the importance of law enforcement documenting and citing observed violations. Police reports and citations could then provide supporting documentation for Beer Board complaints and potential disciplinary action against the caterer's permit.

No specific rule amendments were adopted. Staff will continue reviewing the catering rules and coordinate with relevant Metro agencies before bringing proposed changes back to the Board.
